THE CONFessions and EXPERIENCE of AN INVALID.—Published for the benefit and as a warning to young men who suffer from Nervous Disease, and as a Manual for the use of the Sons of Self-Cure. By one of the most eminent physicians in the U. S. with the addition of several other physicians, and the same in the U. S. with the addition of a complete outfit furnished free
by the Government. $100 paid at the expiration of term of service, which is three years or the war. Also the great sum of money. Those having families can be allowed to receive any sum up to $100, and the regulation of 1860 is a subject of enduring interest, we believe many will find this pamphlet worth reading and preserving.

Cavalry.

HEADQUARTERS, No. 74 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, NO. 26, 1861.

By authority from the V. A. Department, Major JAMES C. SWAIN, in the name of Gov. Morton, James C. SWAIN, in Cavalry, U. S. A., is now recruiting for a Regiment of Cavalry to serve for three years or during the war.

By the kindness of his Excellency Gov. Morton, and of General Butler, the brick barracks, at the Quarantine Landing, have been assigned as the quarters of the Regiment during its formation.

Lieut. Swain has orders to join the army in the field as for active service as soon as the different battalions may be for-mated.

The uniforms, equipments, and arms for the Regiment have been provided, and will be served to the men as fast as they are enlisted.

Officers and non-commissioned parts of companies recruited will be recruited and organized, on application at these headquarters.

As this is probably the last and only Regiment of Cavalry that will be organized in this State during the War, those dy-stems of joining this branch of the service are particularly opportunities.

1st Lt. SWAIN, U. S. A., Colonel Commanding.

Headquarters, Marine Artillery.

Burnside's Expedition.—Imported to recruit, ordinary seamen, boatmen, landmen, mechanics and others, to man the U. S. MARINE ARTILLERY, W. A. Head, Col. commanding.

Recruits are to be received at the same in the U. S.
with the addition of a complete outfit furnished free
by the Government. $100 paid at the expiration of term of service, which is three years or the war. Also the great sum of money. Those having families can be allowed to receive any sum up to $100, and the regulation of 1860 is a subject of enduring interest, we believe
many will find this pamphlet worth reading and preserving.

Colonel Commanding.

Regiment of Volunteer Engineers.

Col. EDWARD W. SERRETT, Lieut.-Col. JAMES F.

Gen. Burnside's Expedition.

Recruits are to be received at the V. A. Department, one half of it now at Station Head, S. C., the balance to go within three weeks at the fort.

Privates in this regiment are to be paid.

$100 per month.

A few non-commissioned officers, ship-carpenters, platers, blacksmiths, gunners, choppers, lumbermen, mechanics, wheelwrights, boiler-makers, and rail-roadsmen will be received to complete the regiment.

Recruits are under pay, and must be enlisted into service, and furnished with quarters, food, and a sum of money.

The families of the soldiers are cared for by the authorities.

Headquarters at the corner of Chambers and Chatham sts.

Enlist for three years, or during the war.

New-York, Nov. 26, 1861.

No account will be paid or transportation given unless the order is confirmed.

Military—Officers and Men Wanted.—Having
the authority to bring a brace of Infantry Regiments into the service, and to furnish them with all the necessary means to sustain them in the field, we will do our best to have the men we want, and will do well to apply to us.

The authority is writing and not limited as to time. Apply to No. 1 Waverley-place, corner of Broadway and W. 26th-st.

Colonel Commanding.

CHARLES O'CONOR,

WM. M. EVANS, and
JOSEPH BLUNT, in the Court of Appeals.

And the Opinions of JUDGES DENIO, WRIGHT, and CLERKE.

The greatest importance of the legal and political principles involved—the boldness with which the issues were made, and the ability with which the argument was sustained on both sides, render this one of the most significant and universally interesting trials that ever took place in this country.
